

Chairman Powell must make the debate on ownership open and transparent. We do not need further deregulation; monopolies of broadcast and print news and information services will result, which is contrary to federal law and to American custom. Delay the vote, release the language of the proposed changes to the public for adequate debate and consideration, and listen to the overwhelming response against the closed door decision making policy of the Chairman.